2. Look in the right column for the status of your applications. Those that are in Draft Status have not been submitted to us. Those marked In Process have been received and are currently being evaluated.
 - Depending upon the recruitment and type of exam, you will see results from exams on your profile overview.
 - Requests for review of exam results must be made within twenty calendar days from when the score was made available. Individual score notices will not typically be sent out.
 - If you have withdrawn an application from consideration it will be marked as withdrawn.

In your overview is a list of job applications.

- A date next to a job listing indicates that you have submitted an application on that date.

- If you are interested in a job and no date shows, you need to complete and submit an application.
- You can delete/withdraw or continue the application process by clicking in the blue box to highlight the job and clicking the applicable yellow box at the bottom of the screen.
